

Race Report: Washougal, WA, July 27, 2019

The Washougal fans were treated to some spectacular racing at round nine of the Pro Motocross Series. The Monster Energy/Star Racing/Yamahas dominated the starts in both motos. The crowd cheered as Ferrandis battled for the lead in some of the closest racing this season. He successfully took both moto wins and got his second overall win. Justin Cooper was also on the podium, in third, after finishing two-four. Nichols was fifth in the first moto and took the second moto's holeshot. A crash set him back and he finished ninth; taking eighth overall. Masterpool finished thirteenth. Mitchell Oldenburg crashed out in the first moto but an eleventh-place finish in the second gave him sixteenth overall.

Colt Nichols: 5th, 2:20.312

Ty Masterpool: 6th, 2:21.657

Mitchell Oldenburg: 7th, 2:21.881

Overall Best Qualifying times:

Dylan Ferrandis was the second fastest qualifier, with a best lap time of 2:18.548. Justin Cooper followed Ferrandis, in third, with a time of 2:18.703. Nichols' time of 2:20.312, placed him fifth. Next, was Ty Masterpool, in sixth, with a time of 2:21.657. Mitchell Oldenburg's fastest time of 2:21.881, gave him seventh in qualifying.

Moto 1:

A fleet of Yamahas dominated the start of the first moto and it was led by Justin Cooper. Ferrandis was second, Masterpool was third, Nichols was sixth and Oldenburg seventh. After the hype on the first lap ended, the riders settled and Nichols took over the fifth-place spot. Masterpool dropped to sixth and Oldenburg to eighth. Nichols and Masterpool went down. Nichols got back up in tenth and Masterpool in fourteenth. This bumped Oldenburg up to sixth. Meanwhile, Ferrandis passed Cooper for the lead coming out of the whoops. Nichols was working his way forward and moved back into sixth. Oldenburg crashed with a lapped rider, which put an end to his moto. Meanwhile, two Monster Energy/Star Racing/Yamahas charged upfront: Ferrandis crossed the finish line victorious and Cooper was second. Nichols made up one more spot and finished fifth. Masterpool ended in twelfth.

Moto 2:

Once again, the gate dropped to the Monster Energy/Star Racing/Yamahas leading the pack. Colt Nichols took the holeshot, followed by Ferrandis, Masterpool, Cooper and Oldenburg. Ferrandis immediately scooped up the lead in the second corner and Nichols dropped to fourth, Cooper to sixth, Masterpool to eighth and Oldenburg to eleventh. Nichols crashed and got up in ninth, which pushed Cooper up to fourth. Throughout the moto, Ferrandis defended his lead. He held his position and took his second win of the day. Cooper hunted down third but ran out of time crossed the finish line in fourth. Nichols ended in ninth and Oldenburg was eleventh. Ty Masterpool went down and finished his second moto in fifteenth.

Dylan Ferrandis continues to close the gap between him and the point's leader: the deficit is now just twenty-eight-points. Justin Cooper remains third in the rankings. He is twenty-points behind Ferrandis. Nichols moves up a position, from fifth to fourth. Ty Masterpool holds on to eleventh and Mitchell Oldenburg climbs to twentieth.
